Bill Mokoid Tosses Keg for Pi Kapp
PI KAPPA PHI IS NUMBER ONE IN TALENT SHOW AND GREEK WEEK

Beta Alpha started the 69-70 school year off right by capturing 1st place in the two IFC competitive events, Greek Week and the Talent Show. They hoisted the name Pi Kappa Phi to the best on campus. Beta Alpha has instilled a spirit in the Brotherhood and it looks like no mountain is too high to conquer.

The IFC's annual Greek Week was run on the basis of olympic events and participation in a blood drive. Pi Kapp stood at 2nd place at the end of the olympics on their performance in the tug-o-war, elevator stuffing, and $\frac{1}{4}$ keg throw. In two other events Pi Kapp was disqualified in the lead. Steve De Palma became over-energized in the beer can rolling event and used his head instead of his nose in pushing the beer can across the field. Tony "Pineapple" Perez was dumped with his stretcher near the finish line in the stretcher race event. With the smell of number 1 in the air, Beta Alpha grouped together and participated en mass in the blood drive. Out of thirty-five brothers, thirty volunteered to give blood. This gave Pi Kapp 1st place in the 1st Annual IFC Greek Olympics. Our plaque hangs now in NCE's Center.

Beta Alpha's entry in the IFC Talent Show was unique to all previous entries. Our entry was a 7 minute original film. Brothers Miller and De Palma filmed and directed 15 other Pi Kapps in a modern Keystone Kop routine. The film included such familiar scenes as Burnetts Tavern, Gil's, NCE Campus and Branch Brook Park. It also had as extras the Barringer High football team, an NCE Pinkerton, Gil, a local native amiably named Apple Pie, and a non observant couple making out. The villains of the film were Russ Chomiak and Bill Mokoid. A well edited sound track accompanied the film. Our humorous presentation had the audience in stitches.

The film "Buena Serra Hiram Walker" ended with a live, on stage finale. The villains and the other Pi Kapps were behind the movie screen and as the screen was raised the chase continued through the audience and out the door. An outhouse was in the middle of the stage and as the performers left it fell apart. There sitting on the bowl was new Archon Angelo Meola doing his thing and holding up a Vector which had in bold print the words THE END. The film won Beta Alpha a two and a half foot high trophy as well as an enviable position on the NCE campus.

With Pi Kappa Phi's name now well known among NCE's new freshmen we now proceeded to have one of the best fall rushes ever.

Al Christian has just returned from the service.

Ed Byrne is in Libya with the Peace Corps.

Steve Hoffman has returned from Eske's Forest in upstate N. Y.

Eske's new hobby: Climbing trees and running from game wardens.

Cliffy T in Michigan visits with the undergrads at Alpha Tau.

Freddy "Kahoona" Becker on the west coast.

Tommy Pardew & Richie Hinson are in A. F. Flight school in Ariz., and Alabama.

Twiggy Caruso "Onionhead" at Dix.

Weekends Kept Alive at Beta Alpha

Beta Alpha's social calendar with both its Friday and Saturday night parties has been a splendid success thus far. Commencing with the "Kickoff" party our year's parties are in full swing.

The Halloween Party was enjoyed by all who attended it. Alumnus Brother Steve Hoffman and his pinmate June won first prize for their "Count Dracula" costumes. Brothers DePalma and "Tiny Tim" Bruno won second and third prizes. The party featured other famous personalities such as "Snoopy" Forman, "Muchacha" Parkinson, and "Nurse" McCranor. Needles to say the traditional pumpkin throwing fight did justice to those we've had in the past.

The Playboy Party, always a huge success, was once more a first class production. Beginning at seven o'clock with hor d'oeuvres and cocktails, leading into both hot and cold buffet, the party's open bar and band left everyone in high spirits.

The future also holds several parties in store. After the pledges host their annual Christmas party there will be the Pi Kappa Phi New Year's Eve Party which for some mystical reason always turns into a dynamic affair.

We would like to see more alumni attend our parties. Come down and meet the new brothers and pledges and we're sure you will all enjoy yourselves.

Attaining "Best Fraternity on Campus" those many times in its twenty-one years as a national fraternity and winning it in its last year of existence as an award.

Founders' Day dinners which bring out the best in the brothers.

Contrary to popular belief the Beta Alpha Particles are published three times annually by the undergraduate brothers of Beta Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity at Newark College of Engineering, Newark, New Jersey.

Editor in Chief Michael Merdinger
Editor in Charge John M. Spigel

Rog and Carol Dolida, Hank and Roz Risko are neighbors in Tustin and Buena Park Calif.

Brothers Sommariva, Geaslen, and Hanson also Californians

Shynne and Becker working for G. E. in California.

Yes! Bayonne #1 lives!

Rich Eitel, Rich and Lynn Hyman are all up in Somersworth, N.H.

Nick DiBenedictus has just passed his Bar exams--in law, that is.

Pledge Androsiglio is #1 in the draft lottery.

Twiggy is #357 and is residing, for the time being, in Fort Dix.

#'s 1, 3, 44, 61, 65, 66, and 69 are prime reasons why Beta Alpha is looking for a new house--in Canada.

Welcome Christine Ann Prato to the family of Nick and Janet.

BETA ALPHA FILMS, INC.

There should be a note about films at Beta Alpha. Its earliest beginnings date back to the first "Pancho Villa" film. This film had its climatic scene in a sand pit with "Pancho" dying heroically. The next film was "The Return of Pancho Villa". Using Ray Spinelli's car in this film was a major hazard. Cars also proved to be disenchanting in the original film as one brother lost his license on the way to the filming. A bottle of Jack Daniels was the supporting object in the "Return of Pancho Villa." The third film kept up the traditional Spanish title with "Buena Serra, Hiram Walker," with, you guessed it, a bottle of H.W. the stolen object under pursuit. In the final chase scene Jim Dinapoli's V.W. strained under the load of fifteen Pi Kapp Brothers.

The following graduate brothers have not yet fulfilled their financial obligations to Beta Alpha Chapter in the amounts shown.

Larry Butterfoss	$22.00
Les Cadigan	84.78
Paul Caruso	4.54
Steve Desteno	8.50
Rick Donnelly	13.59
Ralph Doudera	14.00

Dear Alumni Brothers,

The undergrad brothers sincerely hope you like the new face of the Beta Alpha Particles. This publication is intended solely for you alumni to keep you abreast with the happenings of your fraternity and to keep you in touch with those you have spent many happy years with during your college days.

In order for us to do our best to carry through our intentions we need your help by keeping us with your current address. Also we are interested in hearing from you. Drop us a note telling us what you have been up to, and if you have an old college tale you would like to share please write us about it. And if you would like to get in touch with any of your fellow alumni we would be happy to send you his address.

Yours in Pi Kappa Phi,
The Undergrads
