ALUMNI HOMECOMING

On the first weekend in October, Beta Alpha Chapter of Pi Kappa Phi held its first homecoming. On Friday night, there was a party at the fraternity house which was attended by quite a few alumni. Then on Sunday, the annual alumni-undergrad football game was held. (See article below) Both events went over very well. We hope Alumni Homecoming will be an event that will catch on and be repeated every year from now on.

N.J.A.A. Meeting Schedule

Meetings will be held every first Tuesday of the Month starting with Tuesday February 5, 1980. There will be no meeting in January because of the holidays. They will be held at Steak and Ale Restaurant, Route 22 Eastbound, Mountainside, New Jersey. Cocktails at 6:00 p.m. and dinner at 7:00 p.m. Elections will be held at this meeting. We are looking for some new people. If interested please contact Jim Krucher Hm. 201-546-0035 or at work at 201-285-4990.

ALUMNI 18 UNDERGRADS 0.000000000

The annual Alumni vs. Undergrads football contest proved to be most exciting. Several alumni volunteered to play for the undergrads so they could field a team. The alumni unleashed a spectacular aerial attack led by Tom 'the bomb' Herits. The undergrads managed to move the ball well on offense but the Alumni defensive line tightened whenever the undergrads came within scoring distance. The first scoring drive for the Alumni Machine was set up by a 60 yard bomb from Tom Herits to Jim Krucher. This put the ball inside the 10 yard line. Two plays later, Tom found Steve De Palma ignored (as usual) in the end zone and hit him for 6 points.

In the second quarter, Tom hit Aivars Krumins with a 16 yard touchdown toss over the middle. It was Aivars's first Alumni touchdown. The second half brought Ted Cassera into the game, and Tom Herits hit him several times with quick passes that turned into big gainers. The last touchdown was set up this way. Jim Krucher scored the last one on a quick 10 pass. All extra points were missed. The alumni refused to take a sure 1 point (off Krucher's foot) and elected to go for two each time.

Why not place an ad in the NJAA Newsletter? It may sound stupid but think about it. Does free advertising ever hurt? Of course not!!! Free, yes FREE !!!!! Any dues paying member can place an ad for free in this newsletter. This is just another way we can serve our membership.

You can place any legitimate ad. For example, we can place ads for items for sale, items wanted, job postings, positions wanted, real estate for sale, etc. If you have a business and want to advertise it, let us know about it.

New Jersey Nets Game October 26, 1979

On October 26 a Friday Night, the NJAA sponsored a trip to see the the New Jersey Nets play the the Cleveland Cavaliers. Over twenty alumni and their guests attended the event and saw an exciting victory. Those of you who follow the pros realize victories have been a scarcity for the Nets.

Aside from the victory, the other highlights at the game were the San Diego Chicken with his antics, lack of oxygen, and nose bleeds for some alumni. Unlike the YANKEE GAME this year, we could not have the Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity name displayed on the message board. (They do not have a big message board.) Therefore they announced our name over the speaker system thanks to the efforts of Avairs. After the game, a large group went to Steve Flatley's and Jim Mowczan's apartment for some refreshments. The NJAA would like to express a sincere THANK YOU to Steve and Jim for their hospitality and beer.

ALUMNI CLOBBER THE UNDERGRAD BASKETBALL TEAM

This article has been written before the Alumni vs. Undergrads annual Basketball game on December 7, 1979 at the NJIT Gymnasium. Since the outcome at this time is inevitable, we decided to include a few phrases that The Big "W" Weirner Wolf would use to describe the contest, and now to the video tape: Aivars with a turn around -- swosh, De Nichilo with a steal, Herits from 15 feet -- Swosh, Lavella shoots -- errrrr, Krucher from 30 -- swosh, swoshhh -- showosshhhh -- shawooosshhhh !!! And oh no Winegar with a super slam dunk --oh.... no... there goes the backboard it exploded !!! Darrell Dawkins watch out.

Take the Alumni Team and Give 30 Points --its the best bet in years!! That's all folks..
